Mother's Day was pretty much made for dining. Many of Orange County's restaurants go all out, honoring that special mom in your life with some fantastic meals. Whether you're at brunch, lunch or dinner, chances are you'll be presented with some unique options that aren't always on the menu. These specials are a great way to tell mom how much you care and satisfy her taste buds at the same time.

Adding crab to a dish is a quick way to make it high class, so it's no surprise that The Ranch's Maryland Blue Crab Benedict is one of our picks for the best Mother's Day dishes around. Take in the rustic country décor as you enjoy the restaurant's brunch, complete with bottomless champagne or mimosas. Each guest will choose a first course, soup or salad, main course and dessert, but the Maryland Blue Crab Benedict is easily the standout dish on the menu. Crafted with poached farm eggs, leafy Swiss chard and a Hollandaise sauce, the dish offers a unique way to Eggs Benedict, an ever-popular brunch item.
