Ranch Restaurant Celebrates Expansion Completion

KARI HAMANAKA

Thursday, October 3, 2013

The completed expansion of The Ranch Restaurant & Saloon in Anaheim was celebrated Wednesday evening at a private reception.

The space for events and private dining is on the sixth floor of the Extron Electronics Inc. headquarters building on Ball Road and includes a 14,000-bottle wine cellar, 18-seat classroom kitchen and four dining and event rooms totaling 7,679 square feet.

The original 20,000-square-foot Ranch Restaurant & Saloon opened roughly two years ago on the ground floor of the Extron building as a passion project for Extron founder Andrew Edwards, who was looking for a good place to dance.

The upscale steakhouse and dance hall has received high ratings from Zagat and often attracts hour-and-a-half-long waits on weekends.
