The dining scene in Orange County has reached a tipping point. The bar for entry for new restaurants is set higher than ever.

The Ranch couldn't be more oddly located, in an industrial neverland of east Anaheim, but it just goes to show that people will travel anywhere if the cooking is good enough. The extraordinary talents of chefs Michael Rossi and David Rossi have put this place on the map. Part old-school steakhouse, part modern-day epicurean temple, The Ranch is simply one of the finest restaurants in California, where a trio of ceviches and an incredible lamb chop become the perfect expression of time and place.
